Justin Smith

Wednesday 20 September | 6pm-8pm

Good as Gold follows an escaped orphan, a copper and his prisoner, and a gang of bushrangers as they descend on Melbourne town for the Cup. Each is hoping for something different — a new beginning, a chance to make history, or a prize bigger than they could imagine. But only one can get the gold.

Justin Smith has a personal connection to the characters he writes, but none more than Laurence Flynn, named after his first Australian ancestor, an educated man who helped immigrants of the time receive licencing to work in the local mines. Why not come along and meet Justin to find out more.

Staged in partnership with Collins Booksellers on Lydiard.
