Author of the Month

Digby Stevens.

Digby is a Ballarat-based author known for his crime thrillers, particularly A Murder of Crows. His work explores the impacts of crime and policing on the community, set against the backdrop of the Royal Commission into Institutionalised Abuse.

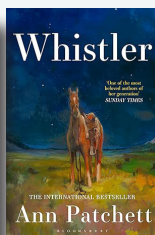

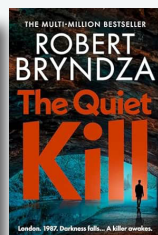

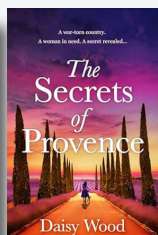

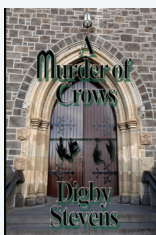

Stevens has a background as a teacher and has lived and taught in Ballarat for over thirty years. He is an artist, teacher, and lover of popular culture, with a particular interest in the works of Raymond Chandler and Ian Rankin. His writing often reflects his experiences and observations in the local Ballarat community.

Book of the Month

A Murder of Crows by Digby Stevens.

Set against the backdrop of the Royal Commission into Sexual Abuse and the effects on the community of Ballarat, A Murder of Crows charts the rampage of a killer determined to set the record straight.

Detective Jack Waters is called to a murder that has all the hallmarks of a stage show, by an unknown killer who seems determined to rewrite history and create his own ending to a story that has been drawn out for too long.

Recommended Reads

The Secrets of Provence by Daisy Wood.

Provence, 1940. Thrown out of occupied Paris by the Nazis, brave, beautiful Mathilde finds refuge with her cousin in Provence, where she's soon drawn into the Resistance movement.

Secrecy and subterfuge are her constant companions, where passions run high and betrayal is a continual threat. But Mathilde's greatest pain and greatest joy are wrapped up in the most heartbreaking secret of all- one she must hide even from her beloved husband, and keep for the rest of her life.

Paris, present day, Juliette's life should be perfect, with her bookshop established and her relationship feeling settled- but something just isn't clicking.

Searching for more, an old photograph will lead Juliette to a beautiful, crumbling chateau. And there, she will uncover a story that will change her life forever.

The Quiet Kill by Robert Bryndza.

Winter, 1987 Det. Jamie Day arrives in London determined to prove himself. After years policing a quiet seaside town, his promotion to the Metropolitan Police feels like the opportunity he has been waiting for.

On his first day in plain clothes, Jamie makes a grim discovery: the dismembered body of a young man, left in a dark corner of the city. What should have been a routine first shift quickly becomes the beginning of a major murder investigation. Then another victim is found ...

For All The Dead Girls

Host, Tracey Rolf

Wednesday 1 July, 6pm - 7.30pm

Tough and gutsy PI Lou Alcott returns with a terrifyingly gritty new case that takes her deep into the dark web.

While juggling a missing person case with unexpected ties close to home and saving an innocent woman and her child from a dangerous domestic situation, Lou ends up in the line of fire of a mysterious dark-web hate group, known only as SYB.

As Melbourne simmers through a relentless heatwave, the murders of more women are connected to SYB and Lou becomes the number one target of their vicious campaign of incited violence...

Alexandr Misko - International Guitar Sensation Live at BMI

Sunday 5 July, 7.30pm - 9pm

Hailed as "the future of guitar" (Total Guitar), Misko is a globally renowned virtuoso known for his jaw-dropping technique, emotional depth, and genre-defying style. Fusing classical precision with elements of jazz, rock, and modern fingerstyle, his performances are both technically astonishing and deeply moving.

Misko's self-taught, boundary-pushing approach has captivated millions online, earning him a massive global following and praise from some of the world's top music publications. With lightning-fast fingerpicking, percussive tapping, and masterful arrangements, he transforms a single acoustic guitar into an entire musical universe — live and without loops.

Cost: $25 - $50.

21 HEARTS: Vivian Bullwinkel and the nurses of the Vyner Brooke

A THEATRE 180 production

Saturday 11 July, 7pm - 8.50pm

Written by Jenny Davis. A compelling true story from WWII, honouring the bravery strength, love and hope of Australian Army Nurses in the face of adversity.

Directed by Stuart Halusz Featuring Caitlin Beresford-Ord, Rebecca Davis, Michelle Fornasier, Alex Jones, Tegan Mulvany and Helen Searle.

This will be the final performance of this production, as both the Friday performances and the Saturday morning performance have 'sold out' here in Ballarat.

Vivian Bullwinkel was one of 65 Australian nurses who boarded the Vyner Brooke in an attempt to flee the Japanese invasion of Singapore in February, 1942. Bombed by Japanese fighter planes and after spending days at sea, she and some other survivors found their way to Radji Beach on Banka Island where they surrendered.

The only survivor and witness, Vivian spent the rest of the war in a prison camp before liberation, and her remaining years fighting for recognition of the bravery of her friends and colleagues; their strength and courage in the face of death sustaining her for the rest of her illustrious life.

Cost: $77 - $38.50.

Documentary Tribute to David Gulpilil

Thursday 16 July 7.30pm show-time

David Gulpilil, from the Mandjapingu (Djilba) clan of the Yolngu people, was discovered by a visiting British film-maker and recruited into the world of film. Adventurous, talented, intelligent and ambitious, he became one of Australia's best-known and charismatic actors.

Following Walkabout (1971), Gulpilil's acting career spanned over 40 films, including classics such as The Tracker (2002), Rabbit-Proof Fence (2001), Ten Canoes (2006), and My Name is Gulpilil (2021); international attention soared with his role in Crocodile Dundee (1986). Gulpilil spent over 50 years of his life bringing authentic Indigenous stories, dance and music to audiences around the world, culminating in a collaboration with Rolf de Heer and Molly Reynolds on My Name Is Gulpilil (2021) which showed him looking back over a life of extreme highs and lows. the story unfolds through the eyes of mother, teacher, headmistress and child, the truth gradually emerges...

Every Time She Wakes

Host, author Paula Gleeson

Monday 20 July, 6pm - 7.30pm

An unputdownable thriller from the bestselling author of Six Minutes and The Last Trace.

Every Time She Wakes is a taut, time-bending thriller about family, identity and defying fate.

When careers counsellor Suze and her family are evacuated from their home during a bushfire emergency, she suddenly realises they're being kidnapped. The van crashes and Suze thinks it's the end.

But she wakes up two weeks back in time. No one else remembers the terror that came before. Is it all in her own mind?

Then it happens again. And again.

With every loop, her world twists into a new version of itself. Suze must discover why it's happening and who is behind the kidnappings. She's running out of time to save her family and wake up in a world she recognises.

God of Carnage

A Ballarat National Theatre production

Thu 23, Fri 24 & Sat 25 July at 7pm

Sat 25 July at 2pm

The Tony Award Winning Play by Yasmina Reza
Directed by Ruby Abbott.

After the event of school yard bullying, four parents differing views may have just created cause for another round; adults edition. The play begins with Michael and Veronica, parents of young Henry, inviting Alan and Annette, parents of Benjamin, to their home to discuss the horrifying event that occurred on the playground that morning.

Eleven-year-old Henry refused to let classmate Benjamin join his gang. Not taking this dismissal lightly, Benjamin armed himself with a stick and knocked out Henry's two front teeth.

With polite niceties wearing thin, the audience watches four very different people try to resolve this matter, convincing each other that it was not the fault of their own son, rather that of the other. With accusations being hurled around the room, the argument heats up even further when evaluating matters of racism, sexism and homophobia. By evening's end, the gloves are well and truly off, with the adults behaving in a manner that is eerily similar to that which occurred on the playground.

Cost: Tickets: $30 adults, $25 Concession, $20.00 BNT members, $15 Children, Group package (10 adults), $180.00. Ticket sales close 1 hour prior to the performance.

A bar will operate for these performances.

Lest Angels Weep

Host, actor Kate Atkinson

Wednesday 29 July, 6pm - 7.30pm

The new case is cold. Stone cold. Until another murder with striking similarities rocks a remote outback town.

Detective Liz Moorland is desperate to get out of Melbourne. Away from the aftermath of shocking events surrounding her team and her father. The heat of the red dirt is a welcome distraction.

But was this murder done by a copycat or is the original killer still living within the small community? What is the secret which keeps everyone away from the old church? Almost everyone. And why is the team's request for cold and current case reports and forensics meeting resistance from the local police?

The discovery of an angel-shaped pendant on a grave leads to a rumoured fourth death – from even longer ago. How the pieces connect is proving to be the most complex puzzle Operation Nobody has encountered.

Someone is watching their every move. Someone is protecting the scene of the crimes. And someone is ready to kill again.
